USDA has deemed that an affidavit can be used as an official record of Country of Origin, and I therefore attest by either having first-hand knowledge, using normal business records, or information from a producer affidavit(s) that all livestock referenced by this document are of the identified origin below (only one origin may be checked).

| Check one | Type | Animals were born in | Animals were raised in | To be harvested in |
|--------------------------|-------------|--|-------------------------------|---------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> | A | United States <small>Or in US on or before 07/15/08</small> | United States | United States |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | B | Canada | United States | United States |

If the origin of my livestock becomes other than that described above, I agree to immediately notify Hormel Foods Corporation when this occurs.

This affidavit/declaration remains in effect for one year from the date signed, at which time I must submit a new affidavit/declaration to Hormel Foods Corporation. I may, however, revoke any affidavit/declaration at any time, by giving written notice to Hormel Foods Corporation.

Furthermore, I attest that the above listed person, farm, or business has, and will maintain normal business records confirming livestock origin for one year from the date of delivery of the livestock to Hormel Foods Corporation.

I attest that these records reflecting specific transactions are available for inspection for the sole purpose of compliance with an audit as described by the country-of-origin labeling provisions contained in the Farm Security and Rural Investment Act of 2002 as amended.
