The National Pork Board is pleased to announce that the Pig Welfare Symposium will be held November 13-15, 2019 in Minneapolis, MN. The objectives of the symposium are to improve the well-being of pigs by disseminating recent research findings and recommendations, raising awareness of current and emerging issues and identifying potential solutions. To accomplish this, the symposium provides a forum for sharing ideas, learning from other segments of the industry and fostering dialogue on pig welfare related issues.

The Pig Welfare Symposium sponsorship opportunities provide your company or association with a number of ways to enhance your visibility and associate your brands or messages with different aspects of the event and the attendees.
